Although—we can offer some boxes year round. We are growing and therefore we are extending our growing season. Also keep in mind we not only offer produce, we also offer beef, pork, and lamb. We have a full line of baked goods featuring our signature cookies— white chocolate ginger- we are nearing the 2,000 dozen mark!! Stephen has a wide assortment of wood products that he offers including charcuterie boards. This year he is introducing wind chimes, fan trellises, and garden obelisks. Since we raise peacocks, we are now offering peacock feather earrings. This year we are especially excited to offer our FOODIE BOX— this box will include unusual products that are becoming more sought after by the folks who love to cook different foods. We have 15 of these available and this is the first announcement of this so we expect these to go quickly. Also, another first announcement— we are now approved to accept EBT so we can now offer more produce to more folks to get those farm fresh products in our KY bellies!!! Our website is valleyofhopefarms.com and we accept cash, check, debit cards, and EBT.	Boxes can be picked up at the farm , the Greenup County Farmers Market or we can meet
